

McCormick's Creek State Park is.....

Wild about Wildlife!

August 8 & 9th 2009

Saturday, August 8th

Live animal programs by WildCare, Inc.

A special thanks to WildCare, a non-profit organization providing professional care to sick, injured, and orphaned native wildlife. Join WildCare for one of their programs today and support their organization.

11:30 AM

Pit Vipers of Indiana- Nature Center. Join Brown County's Brittany Davis as we explore the world of Indiana's venomous snakes! This program will include a live *Timber Rattlesnake and Copperhead.

1:00 PM

WildCare Presents "Lunch-hour with the Masked-Bandit" Nature Center. If you're a camper you may already be familiar with this guy! Meet a live *raccoon and learn how to protect your campsite from the masked-bandit!

3:00 PM

WildCare Presents "Predator vs. Prey": Nature Center Discover the relationships between predators and their prey as we take a closer look a live *Broad-winged Hawk and "surprise" prey animal!

7:00 PM

WildCare's Owls: Nature Center. Learn why owls have been called the "tigers of the sky." Get a chance to meet a live *Eastern Screech Owl and an Eurasian Barn Owl.

Sunday, August 9th

11:30 AM

Owl Pellet Dissection: Nature Center. Dig in to find out what the owls have been eating!

1:30 PM

Reptiles of Indiana: Nature Center. Join the Nature Center Staff to learn some reptile basics! Visit with a live *red-eared slider turtle, and black rat snake!